Company Law Reporter

The market leading knowledge source for Australian corporate law, this updating service equips you with the information you need to keep the best company.

The Australian Company Law Premium Reporter is a comprehensive commentary service, guiding you through each section of the Corporations Act 2001, providing you with a working knowledge of how this regime affects day-to-day company procedures. Written by lawyers for lawyers, the easy-to-use commentary is updated as changes in the law occur.

We guide you to the information you need quickly. Roadmaps help you find your way around, taking out the guesswork out of researching a company law topic, pulling together all the relevant information for you, giving you a central point to decide whether that level of information is sufficient or if you want to dive down into the commentary, cases, legislation, regulatory guides, etc.

Making it easy for you to access comprehensive information is also a priority. Within the commentary, the Reporter contains thousands of seamlessly integrated links to legislation, cases, forms, court rules, takeovers panel publications and explanatory memorandums.
